

Margaret (Meg) Rowley (nee Leslie)

Lovingly remembered by family and friends, Margaret passed away in Victoria, B.C. on Saturday, May 6, 2006. Born on March 28, 1914 in Drumlithie, Scotland, she was predeceased by her husband, Alexander H. Rowley in 1986 and her daughter, Brenda in 2002. Margaret taught school for many years in Alberta and New Zealand. Meg had many kind friends in her Bridge Club and her wit and humour were a testament to her unique personality. A determined Scottish lass, at 91, she still lived independently in her own home. Many thanks to all those at Douglas Care Community who made her last 6 months pleasant and dignified. A private Memorial is being arranged for a later date.
