

Margaret Roberts

Margaret Roberts was born in South Shields, England, and died peacefully in Victoria at the age of 94. A woman of amazing energy, optimism and cheer, Margaret lived life fully and joyfully to the very end.

She is lovingly remembered by her three sons: David (Cathy), Kevin (Diane) and Brian (Ngairé); her cherished grandchildren Sarah (Conner), Emma, Sierra, and Tylo and her great-grandchild, Declan. She was predeceased by her husband, Anthony Roberts, with whom she shared 56 wonderful years of marriage, travel and exploration.

After immigrating from England to Canada in the 1950's, Margaret embraced her adopted country with enthusiasm—skiing, hiking, and canoeing with her family. With her friends, she explored Greater Victoria leading the Wednesday Wanderers walking group on over 2000 hikes across an incredible 54 years. She also delighted in many hours of Mahjong and Bridge, always valuing laughter and companionship.

Keeping up with her active grandchildren she always said: “Never say you’re too old.” Always cheerful and always busy, she brought light to everyone around her and will be deeply missed by family and friends alike.

Margaret’s advice for life’s challenges was always “go for a brisk walk”. She liked to walk to see what’s around the corner, so we leave her to look around that final corner.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
