May Yet Me Chan

May passed away peacefully on April 8, 2025. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. Predeceased by her husband, Paul, of 65 years, and daughter Paula. She is survived by her son, Nelson (Daisy); granddaughters Amanda and Kimberly (Aaron); brother Frank (Geanette), sister Mary, and many nieces and nephews.

May was born and raised in Victoria, where she lived all her life. After graduating from Belmont High School in 1950, she worked for 28 years at the Royal Bank. She stopped working in 1961 to raise Nelson and Paula and went back to work in 1972. After May and Paul retired in 1989, they traveled to many faraway places, enjoying cruising with friends and relatives. She loved to ballroom dance, golf, and play bridge. May spent much of her time tending to her many flower beds and backyard garden. She also loved to sew and knit, volunteering her time to knit baby sweaters and hats, which she donated to the gift shops at RJH and VGH.

Thanks to the caring & supportive staff at RJH and the staff at Berwick Royal Oak, where May resided for the last 2 years. We also greatly thank the staff at Douglas Care for their kindness with May’s palliative care.

May had requested no service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Heart & Stroke Foundation or the charity of your choice.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Gardens
www.mccallgardens.com

This obituary is the property of the “Chan” family and may not be reproduced, distributed, or altered in any way without prior written consent.