

Michael Peter Page

Michael Peter Page, 55, passed away on June 27, 2016, in the loving presence of his mother, Sheila and father, Mike, in the prayers of his sister, Wendy and brother, Tim and with the thoughts of all those whose lives he touched.

He will be fondly missed by family and friends alike for his passion for art (prolific creator of mandalas), music (mostly Rush), golf (as a former member of the Prospect Lake and Ardmore Golf Clubs) and his beleaguered Vancouver Canucks. He will be remembered for his remarkable courage in the face of a life-time of personal adversity and for his enduring commitment to living life with humility, humour and kindness. He has earned his rest.

Please join the family to recognize Mike's life at McCall's Downtown, Johnson & Vancouver Streets, at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, July 15, 2016 with a reception to follow.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the BC Cancer Foundation would be appreciated.
