

Noella LeComte Tough

On Thursday, May 26 2022 Noella Tough passed away peacefully in Victoria, BC after a brief illness.

Noella was born in St. Paul, Alberta and grew up in the St. Paul and Ashmont area. After graduation she travelled to Calgary, then Vancouver, BC where her career led to the senior offices of the BC Supreme Court Chief Justice and high profile BC families. Noella was loved and respected, and remained in touch with many colleagues well into her retirement.

She loved travel, theatre and all things culture; she met the love of her life, John Tough, while working at Queen Elizabeth Theatre and married him in 1975. In retirement, Noella and John moved to Victoria to spend time with family and close friends.

Noella was famous for her calm, kind disposition and her support of everyone she encountered. Her girls' cruises with her sisters will go down in history. As the youngest of her siblings, Noella was dearly loved by all.

Noella is survived by her husband John Tough, brothers Val LeComte and Charles LeComte, her sister Alda Kugler and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her sisters Terry Owen and Bette Ellis. In keeping with Noella's wishes, a small private family gathering will be held to honour her life at a future date.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
