

Norah Emaline Thomas

Norah Emaline Thomas of Victoria, BC, and formerly from Edmonton, AB, passed away at the age of 86, on May 22, 2024.

Norah passed away with her hand held by a loved one and soft music playing. Norah was born on December 26, 1937, in Edmonton, AB to George Francis and Ida Maria Thomas.

Norah spent most of her life living in Edmonton. She went to Mars Hill College in North Carolina in the US after high school. After Mars Hill, Norah went to the University of Alberta, getting her Bachelor of Education and her Bachelor of Arts.

Norah spent 35 years working with the Alberta Teacher's Association teaching in various schools in Edmonton. She taught mostly language Arts. Norah was a natural teacher, teaching her whole life long in one form or another.

After retirement, Norah was able to enjoy her beloved Honolulu, Hawaii, six months of the year. Also, during her retirement, she volunteered wherever and whenever she felt the need. Hospital emergency rooms in both Honolulu and Edmonton had her soft voice and caring ways to help soothe many people on possibly their worst day. Many organizations were fortunate to have her kindness and time as a volunteer.

Later in Norah's retirement, she moved to beautiful Victoria, BC. She and her caring heart also volunteered in her new area.

Norah was predeceased by her parents, and older brother George Gordon. Norah is survived by her siblings Hugh (Mary), John (Rosemary), sister-in-law Joyce, and a sister, children Diane Molzan (Mike), and Herb Molzan Jr., granddaughters Elizabeth and Catherine Linn, and great grandsons Crewe and Jack.

As per her Norah's wishes, there will be no service. Please take the opportunity to read to someone who would enjoy your time and a good story.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Gardens

www.mccallgardens.com