

Norma Fay Paddington (nee King)

Norma passed away peacefully, on October 29, 2016 with her daughter, Kim and son-in-law, David by her side.

Born on March 12, 1940 in Viking, Alberta, she raised her family in Richmond, BC and in 2002, moved to Victoria BC, which became her home. Norma adored Victoria and especially her community at Marrion Village where she had many cherished friends. Norma will be remembered for her thoughtful and generous nature, her ready laugh, and her beautiful smile. She spread sunshine wherever she went and was known for making people feel happy and included.

She is survived by her children, Kim (David), Brock (Cheri), Paige (Craig); grandchildren, Brodie, Shae-Lynn and Blaise; her sister, Shirley; niece, Brenda, as well as many nieces and nephews in Ontario. She was predeceased by her parents, Brian and Iva King; sister, Doreen and nephew, Terry.

A Celebration of Life will take place Saturday, November 12 at 2pm, at Marrion Village, 1968 Bee St., Victoria BC.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to Victoria Hospice.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
