

Patricia Alice Thompson

Patricia Alice Thompson passed away peacefully at the Royal Jubilee Hospital after a long illness.

Born on October 10, 1940, in Vancouver, British Columbia, Patricia was the daughter of the late Mary and Hugh Thompson. She was predeceased by her nephews Sean Thompson, Gregory Thompson, and Aaron Thompson.

She is survived by her brother Brian Thompson (Rita); niece Amber Anderson (Gord); and Jenny Gnam (widow of her nephew Aaron). She is also lovingly remembered by her great-nephews David Miller, Nick Miller, (Kaitlyn) and Phoenix Thompson; her great-niece Azaria Thompson; and her great-great-nephew Leo Miller.

Pat will be fondly remembered as Auntie Pat by her family and dearly missed by her sorority sisters. She was a dedicated and long-standing member of Beta Sigma Phi.

She will be greatly mourned by her many cousins and friends.

After moving with her family to Victoria in 1957, she graduated from Victoria High School. She enjoyed a long and distinguished career with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, which included a two-year posting in London, England. Known for her professionalism and warmth, Pat retired following many years of dedicated service at the Downtown Victoria branch.

In retirement, Pat enjoyed attending symphony concerts and the theatre. She especially loved playing duplicate bridge with her friend Margaret. She was exceptionally creative, her needlepoint was beautiful, and her pieces were much treasured. A seasoned world traveler, Pat delighted in exploring new places and enjoyed many memorable cruises.

Pat was deeply grateful for the tender, thoughtful, and loving care provided by Susan Geyssen at the end of her life's journey.

In accordance with Pat's wishes, there will be no formal service.

Arrangements for her interment are entrusted to McCall Gardens & Sequoia Centre, Royal Oak location.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
