

Patricia (Pat) Betty Paterson

Pat, was born on November 23, 1930 in Blackheath, England and passed away peacefully with her best friend Pasty by her side on October 5, 2022. Pat's five years at home after her husband's passing was made easier with her grandson, Sam and support of family, friends and medical professionals. Predeceased by her husband, Sammy and brother Jim Farmer. Survived by her son Neil "Sammy" (Kim) and granddaughter Tiffany and family; daughter Sarah, grandson Sam, brother-in-law Linwood and his family, Florence Palmer, family and friends in England, Scotland and Canada.

Pat, or Queenie (as her brother Jim called her) was a great advocate for Adult Day Care. She was a founder of Mt. Newton Adult Day Care Centre and long-time volunteer. Once retired from St. Anthony's Physiotherapy she was occupied by her grandson, Sam and many trips to England to visit family and friends.
