

Paul Lyman Fowler

Paul died at the age of 88 on July 6, 2015 in Victoria, British Columbia. He was born in Delburne, Alberta on March 21, 1927 to Neva and Reverend Jessie David Fowler. He grew up in central Alberta, son of a Nazarene Pastor and the youngest of five children. Paul married Reta Miriam (nee Austin) of Toronto on September 10, 1948. Paul used his nursing and management skills over the span of his professional career working in Alberta's Social Services and Community Health, advocating for those without a voice, ensuring appropriate care – the same kind of care that he needed these last few weeks. After retiring from 45 years with the Alberta Government, Paul and Reta made their home in Victoria, B.C. Paul was predeceased by his four siblings and his dear grandson, Kieran. Paul is survived by his loving wife, Reta; his children, Leah Fowler, Timothy (Kathy) Fowler, Peter (Jody) Fowler and Neva (Rob) Bruce; grandchildren, Matthew (Celeste) Fowler, Joshua (Cherise) Fowler, Connor Bruce, Jeremy and Caleb Fowler and 2 great-grandchildren, Kyla and Luke Fowler. Through the years, Paul enjoyed gardening, hunting, fishing, skiing and “camping” in their Airstream trailer. He will be remembered as a man of God who is now at peace with His Saviour.
