Perry Chow

Perry Chow passed away March 4th in VGH at age 69. Predeceased by parents Helen & Harry Chow. Survived by sister Denise, brother-in-law Ian and many dear cousins.

Perry was happiest when riding his trials motorcycle, fishing, black-powder shooting and talking about motorcycles and military facts. He formed many friendships from his long involvement with the Victoria Motorcycle Club, Victoria Fish & Game Club, the Malahat Marauders and the Victoria-Esquimalt Military Re-enactors. He worked as a cook before becoming a journeyman sheet metal worker. With his cooking skills, he was regularly found preparing feasts for his beloved clubs and family.

Perry was outgoing, generous, and kind-hearted. Always ready to lend a hand he served many roles within his various clubs. Despite enduring complex health challenges, he remained optimistic to the end. A special mention goes to his loyal friends who were there for him during all his health challenges and beyond.

To his 'army' of caring health professionals: doctors, nurses, clinicians, and hospital staff – your care was amazing. We thank you all. If desired, memorial donations to the Victoria Hospitals Foundation https://www.victoriahf.ca/donate/

A celebration is planned at the Sequoia Center at McCall Gardens, 4665 Falaise Drive, on Thursday, May 7th at 2pm. RSVP to rememberingPerryC@gmail.com
