

Phyllis Joan Ewan

June 7, 1922 – February 26, 2014

Mum's dash was full of wonderfals: School sweetheart Donald Ian, Admirals Road neighbours, caring staff at Ayre Manor and The Priory, snowdrops, mousetrack or shell hunting along the beaches, ballroom dancing, left-handed bowling, mystery drives with the Great Aunts or grandma to explore Victoria's backroads, a good rye & 7, daily doggie walks, ATVing with Bruce, reading historical fiction and occasionally romance novels, Thrifty's Sendial, spontaneous conversations with tellers and friendly strangers, daytime radio-talk and nightttime game shows, Metchosin Lagoon at Christmas in falling snow, swans, WWII Hamilton munitions, conservatory piano-lessons, granddogs, her '3 on the tree' Rambler, summer tenting holidays, Portage Inlet skating and swimming, garden fresh peas.

Gloria and Gordon and Bruce will remember her, a proud Victoria girl, her sweetness and her happiness.

Instead of flowers or a service, raise a glass to toast absent friends. Live your dash!
