Ralston was born in Toronto, Ontario on September 3, 1944.

Predeceased by Karen Diane Alexander his loving wife of 49 years.

Lovingly remembered by his daughter, Kristen Doran, his son, John Alexander, his son in law, Simon Doran, his grandchildren Rory and Katie Doran, his sisters and brothers in law, Joan and Joe Chacko, Daphne and Robert Bickford, and Ann and Dave Gilliland and his nieces and nephews.

Ralston S. Alexander leaves behind a significant legacy both personally and professionally. He enjoyed a rich family life with his wife, 2 children and 2 grandchildren with whom he spent many special moments which will be forever cherished.
Professionally, he contributed to the field of law through a lifetime of committed and passionate work. Over his 50+ years on the Bar, he has had a significant impact on his clients, his colleagues at Cook Roberts LLP and his previous firms, Alexander Greene Delsey, Achtem Alexander & Pearlman Lindholm. He was consistently driven to volunteer his time for Legal Aid, the Victoria Police Board, and Presidencies at the United Way and the BC Law Society, amongst others.
He also enjoyed countless hours and laughs on the golf course, with his very good friends and partner in his later life, Joyce Russell, who brought much love and joy to his life.

He will be remembered for a legendary wit, and often, for being the funniest guy in the room. He was curious and wanted to see as much of the world as possible, and also eat all of the food found throughout! He will be immensely missed by all those he impacted over a long life, one that he truly relished living.
