

Reverend Murray Wallace Ames

Murray died peacefully on March 7, 2014. Born in Virden, Manitoba on January 21, 1929, Murray's life revolved around the Anglican Church. Ordained in 1953, he spent the first 27 years of his Ministry in the Diocese of Brandon. In 1973 he returned to school, graduating with his Registered Nurse Certification. In 1980, Murray moved to Victoria where he served as Rector of St. Paul's in Esquimalt, as well as St. Mary's in Saanichton. He retired from active ministry in 1993 at which time he became an Honorary Assistant with Christ Church Cathedral, as well as joining its choir. Murray is survived by his nephew, Ken (Hetty) of Brooks, Alberta and niece, Jeannette Madill of Edmonton. The Church and its priesthood was his life, but he also found great pleasure in the world of music, nature, family and his wide circle of friends.

The funeral service will take place on Wednesday, March 12 at 2:00 pm at Christ Church Cathedral. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to PWRDF or the Christ Church Cathedral Education Society, 930 Burdett Avenue, Victoria, BC V8V 3G8. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
