

Sammy (Yau Sung) Shong

Sammy passed away peacefully with his wife at his side. He is predeceased by his parents and siblings, Emma and Jeffery. Sammy is survived by his devoted wife of 61 years, Joeline; son, Esmond (Margaret); grandchildren, Samantha and Benjamin and sisters, Mary and Maisie. He will also be fondly remembered by numerous family members and friends.

Sammy loved gardening, especially taking care of his roses. He retained "That Smile" to the end.

Special thanks to Dr. Stockdill and the emergency responders for their compassion and professionalism.

A family graveside service was held December 09, 2015.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.
