

Scott Rockley

Scott passed away unexpectedly on November 11, 2016. He was born in Calgary on September 23, 1960. He loved the outdoors, hiking, rivers, lakes, forests and mountains plus the beautiful Pacific Ocean. Reading and football were favorite pastimes; he was the Calgary Stampeders number one fan. Scott attended Sir Winston Churchill High School in Calgary Alberta, the University of Calgary and Selkirk College in Castlegar, starting his career in the forestry industry in Nelson, Vernon and Victoria. He was well respected and admired by his colleagues.

Scott is lovingly remembered and survived by his parents, Ken and Marlene Rockley; siblings, Cherie (Brad) Lomheim, Patric (Kelli) Rockley, Liz Fallis; nieces and nephews, Shannon (Jim Jefferies); great nephews, Austin and Nolan Jefferies; Jason Lomheim; Alison and Jeremy Rockley and Keely Fallis. He will be lovingly remembered by dear friends, Gay Valerie Nejedly and Jim Bagley.

Private family service at later date.
