Sean Mackell

Mackell, Sean died suddenly on October 5, 2010 in Victoria, BC. Sean was born on May 19, 1956 in Boston, Mass.

Sean is survived by his partner Colita Landmesser; his parents Kathleen and Fleming; his siblings Rosemary, Kathy, Michael, Joanne, Maureen, Sheilagh, and Fleming; and his nieces and nephews Noah, Clara, Jennifer, Hannah, Maggie, Addy, Gabriel, and Emilie and Charlotte Jones.

Sean was a wanderer and a dreamer. He followed the sun… Key Largo, Hawaii, California and BC are places he loved. Sean was a carpenter and a builder. He was also an artist, taking old windows that people threw away, transforming them into collectable mirrors which he sold all over North America. Sean was an entrepreneur whose sense of adventure was infectious.

The Mackell family plans to celebrate Sean’s beautiful life in mid December when all the family can be home and together. The date will be announced in the coming weeks.

In lieu of flowers friends and family are invited to make a donation to Covenant House (Toronto or Vancouver) in Sean’s name. www.covenanthouse.org
