

Seyram Amegah

Seyram was born in Keta, Ghana, on December 5, 1980, to Justice Gray Horve Amegah (father, deceased) and Juliet Kumansenu (mother).

In 1995, Seyram moved to Canada, where she attended John Barsby Secondary School in Nanaimo and later Esquimalt High School in Victoria. After graduating, she enrolled at Camosun College and earned an associate degree in Computer Science. She went on to the University of Northern British Columbia (UNBC), where she graduated with Bachelor of Arts degree with a double major in Economics and Mathematics, followed by a Master of Business Administration degree. It was in Prince George, during her time at UNBC, that she met her beloved husband, Kobby. In 2007, Seyram and Kobby relocated to Victoria, where they built a life together and raised four wonderful children.

Our cherished wife, mother, sister, daughter, and friend went to be with her Lord on September 17, 2025. Seyram is survived by her devoted husband of 21 years, Kobby, and their children: Ohenewaa (15), Chief (13), Nana Yaw (11), and Nana Ama (5). She is lovingly remembered by many aunties and uncles, half-siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends in Canada and abroad.

Seyram, we take comfort and peace in knowing you are with the Lord, and you and the cherished memories we shared will forever remain in our hearts. You filled our lives with love, laughter, and countless memories that will always remain with us.

"For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's."

— Romans 14:7–8

May you find eternal rest in the Lord. Rest in perfect peace
Mama!
