

Sheila Mary Gould (nee Beckwith)

Sheila passed away at Saanich Peninsula Hospital, ECU 2. She is survived by her husband, Cecil, of nearly 39 years; children, Susan (David), Bruce (Alison) and Kathy (David); 9 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren; sister, Jean and brother, John.

Sheila attended Monterey School, Oak Bay High School and the Provincial Normal School (Lansdowne). She taught in Vancouver and married Ben Domoney and raised their children. The family moved from Richmond to Port Alberni where Sheila also taught. In 1968, they moved to Victoria and Sheila joined the staff at Metchosin Elementary School where she taught until she retired in 1987. During that time, she earned her Bachelor's Degree in Education and in 1977, Cecil and Sheila were married. Sheila had a lifelong interest in water colour painting and in recent years, took lessons to improve her skills. Throughout her life she enjoyed classical music and attended the symphony, opera and theatre with Cecil. Sheila and Cecil enjoyed Scottish Country dancing and she taught it for many years. She had a long association with the Greater Victoria Performing Arts Festival and was a member of the 1948 Grad Committee for Oak Bay High School for many years. Sheila and Cecil became part of the Piers Island community where they built a cottage on the island. After retirement, they enjoyed travelling widely.

There will be no service. A family reception and tea is being planned.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Heart and Stroke Foundation, 106 – 1001 Cloverdale Avenue, Victoria, BC V8X 4C9.
