Shirley Marie Siteman

Shirley passed away at Victoria Hospice on October 11, 2015 at the age of 68. She was born in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia on May 2, 1947 to the late Harold and Rowena (Langdon) Siteman. She is survived by brother, Ronald (Anne Marie) Siteman; nephew, John Siteman; nieces, Christine Siteman, Angela Demings (Darren); great-nieces, Kassidy and Bailey Demings; great-nephew, Cole Siteman all of Dartmouth; Aunt June Stone of Newfoundland and cousins in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her brother, Howard Siteman.

Shirley graduated from the Nova Scotia Hospital School of Nursing in 1968 and received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Mount Saint Vincent University, in Bedford Nova Scotia in 1975. She received a Certificate of University Studies in Theology (Cum Laude) in 1991, followed by a Master of Arts Pastoral Studies in 1993, both from the University of Ottawa/Saint Paul University. She worked at the Nova Scotia Hospital for over twenty years and held positions as head nurse and supervisor. Shirley came to Vancouver Island in 1993 and worked a few different positions, ending up as a Manager at Eric Martin. Shirley was a leader in the Girl Guides of Canada for many years, in Dartmouth (Guide name Tweety) and in Victoria. She received her 50 year pin for active service this last spring. She was devoted member of St. Alban’s Anglican Church, Dartmouth and St. Andrew’s Anglican Church, Cole Harbour. Her spiritual life in Victoria was centered at St. Mary of the Incarnation, in Metchosin, but her reach was widespread through the many activities she was involved with including Cursillo, Education for Ministry, Prayer Shawl Ministry and Safe Church training. She was generously involved with many families and friends over the years, including her own family and was always interested in their activities and accomplishments. Forever missed by family and good friend, Gerry Webber, on the East Coast and too many to count on the West Coast.

“Well done, you good and faithful servant!” Matthew 25:21

Shirley’s Celebration of Life will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, October 17th at St. Mary of the Incarnation, 4125 Metchosin Road, Victoria, BC V9C 3Z6. Those of you who knew Shirley, know she liked colour, so please come and celebrate with as much colour as you can.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.

McCall Bros. Funeral Home
www.mccallbros.com