

Stephen “Steve” John Anthony Duffy

Stephen “Steve” John Anthony Duffy, aged 72, of Victoria British Columbia, passed away peacefully on November 11th, 2025.

Born in Coventry, England, to Desmond and Gwendoline Duffy, Steve built a life filled with warmth, humor, and dedication to his community.

A pillar in the local broadcasting community, Steve’s passion and professionalism made a lasting impact on countless colleagues and listeners. Beyond the microphone, he was a devoted supporter of local sports, believing deeply in the power of sport to bring people together. He took great joy in helping athletes and teams excel, always encouraging others to do their best and enjoy the game.

Outside of work, Steve found joy in painting, traveling, bicycling, and music. He cherished time spent with his family and his many friends, whose lives were brightened by his kindness, laughter, and generous spirit.

Steve is survived by his beloved wife, Susan Duffy, and his children, Jordan and Shannon Duffy, who will forever cherish his strength, guidance, and love.
