

Steve (Istvan) Sagodi

SAGODI, Steve (Istvan) passed away peacefully on January 5, 2007. He was predeceased by his wife Margaret 8 years ago. Steve was born in Hungary and was known for his offbeat sense of humor, his strong work ethic, and commitment to family. He had a long career as a chef at many restaurants in the Victoria area. He was at his happiest cooking wonderful meals and providing for his family. He is survived by his son Steven, daughter in-law Donna, grandchild Zachary and extended family Terry, Mike and Dan, with many more relatives in Hungary.

The family invites friends and