

Sue Chowen

In loving memory of Sue Chowen, her family announces her sudden passing on July 4, 2012 in Victoria, BC. Sue was born on March 8, 1961 on International Women's Day in Iserlohn, Germany. Predeceased by her loving mom, Doris on February 10, 1987. Sue is survived by her two precious sons, Sam and Liam and their mother, Wendy Seager. She also leaves to cherish her memory, her dad, Ron Chowen and his wife, Josephine; her sisters and brothers; nieces and nephews; aunts; uncles, cousins and friends. Sue was a lifeguard for many years, enjoyed watching football, "Young and the Restless" and was happiest when playing grass hockey, cooking wonderful family dinners and most of all spending time with her two boys. Many family members and neighbourhood children will have fond memories of summers spent swimming and eating freezies in Sue's backyard. She was an incredible R.N., had a clever wit and was loved by all. Sue – daughter, mother, sister, aunt and a friend to everyone she met. She will be deeply missed and was a gift to us all. May you finally rest in peace "Forever 19".

A Celebration of her Life will be held in MCCALL BROS. FLORAL CHAPEL, Johnson & Vancouver Streets, at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 26, 2012, followed by a reception in the Family Centre. Condolences may be offered to the family below.
