Sueli (Sue) Dos Anjos Pereira (nee Amaral)

It is with profound sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Sueli (Sue) Dos Anjos Pereira (nee Amaral) after a brief illness. She passed peacefully on July 1, 2022, surrounded by her family. Sueli was predeceased by her infant sister Edna, her father Jaime (2012), and mother Maria (2020). She is survived by her daughters and loves of her life, Denise, and Jennifer; her brothers Delson, and Marco; niece Cheyenne, nephews Tyler, and Noah, as well as her previous husband, Carlos.

Sueli was born on August 24, 1959 in São Paolo, Brasil. At fourteen years old, she emigrated to Victoria BC. Upon arrival in Canada, she excelled at learning English so quickly that she received recognition for such in the local newspaper. She loved school and learning. This led her towards a career in the medical industry, as both a pharmacy assistant, and medical office assistant. She also worked for the BC Government.

Sueli had incredible talents in cooking and baking, and in her younger years enjoyed hosting many barbecues for friends and family. She loved to read, write, and had a passion for music. It was being a mother however, that was her greatest pride and joy. She loved her girls more than life itself, and provided unwavering dedication, encouragement, and presence. More than a mother, she was truly their best friend. Her girls feel blessed to have had a mother like her.

Sueli was an exceptionally kind soul which was reflected in her ability to express compassion and empathy for others. Her positive energy radiated and drew others in; this made her loved by many, as she was gifted in being able to easily connect with others. The epitome of selfless, Sueli consistently did everything for her family, always putting others before herself. She had a unique ability to express gratitude for the little things in life, be it pausing to marvel at the brilliant colours in the sky, or appreciating a beautiful summer's night.

Sueli faced many obstacles throughout her life, but despite this, was the definition of resilient. Her strength, positivity, and courage is a true inspiration to all who knew her.

Our beautiful earth angel is now our heavenly angel. You will live in us for eternity. "Vai com deus" until we meet again. You are loved and missed more than words can convey.
