Susan Elizabeth Yuile

Susan Elizabeth Yuile (Rowell) of Victoria, BC passed away peacefully with her daughters by her side on November 11, 2026. She was a devoted mother and nature lover who brought energy, determination, and a sense of curiosity and humour to life.

Born in Melbourne to Audrey and Leslie Rowell, Sue was proud of her Australian roots. After attending Presbyterian Ladies College, she set sail for England. She taught kindergarten in London and travelled throughout Europe before making her way to Montreal where she met her husband, Peter Yuile, who died in 2014. Canada became her home and she settled in Victoria where she raised her family and taught preschool.

Sue’s children were the heart of her life. Sarah (Stuart), Amy (Robert), and Tim will cherish their memories of her. She delighted in visits with granddaughters, Estella and Clementine. She will also be lovingly remembered by brothers Ian and Philip and their families.

Sue never lost her love of travel, culture, arts, and the outdoors. Even as she faced health challenges, she was in her element at the beach: joyfully climbing the rocks at Cattle Point, navigating driftwood effortlessly at Witty’s Lagoon, and stopping to watch for orcas with binoculars in her purse. Sue always knew where to find the best bakery, fresh flowers, dockside fish and chips, and shady parking spot.

Sue’s last four years brought a new chapter of connection, laughter, and happiness. Our heartfelt thanks to the Kiwanis Pavilion for their exceptional care and her companion Samantha for the adventures they shared.

We hope Sue is enjoying a well deserved rest and a loving reunion with Peter and her beloved dog Sam. Her memory will forever be with those whose hearts she touched.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
