

Susan Yet Shue Lui

Surrounded by family and friends, Susan Yet Shue Lui, 71, died peacefully at Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria, BC on November 13, 2021. Susan was born in Taishan, China and travelled with her mother to Vancouver in the late 1950's to be reunited as a family with her father who had previously immigrated to Canada.

She attended school in the Dunbar and Strathcona neighborhoods and completed high school at Britannia. Susan enrolled in pharmacy school at UBC and landed her first full time job as a community pharmacist within weeks of graduating in 1977. She provided care to patients in Penticton and then Sidney over a 36-year professional career. Susan had a zest for life and her passions included gardening, outdoor activities, running, entertaining, and testing her knowledge watching Jeopardy. She made friends easily and was always keen to try new experiences like taking up golfing when she was 50 and learning how to ride a bicycle at the age of 60.

Susan was devoted throughout her life to her family and is survived by her three younger siblings Gordon (Laura), Harvey (May), and Cynthia (Gregory). She cherished her nieces and nephews Heather, Meghan, Allison, Nicholas, Tamara, Dylan, and Lauren, as well as her cat Cali. She was predeceased by her parents Chow Hon and Sue Kam Lui, and by her beloved partner Robert "Bob" Adams. Her family is deeply grateful to all the friends and health care professionals who supported Susan on her final life's journey.

Due to the current Covid-19 situation, a Celebration of Life for family and friends originally planned for January will now be held on Saturday, May 7, 2022 at 2PM in the Sequoia Centre at McCall Gardens. Those wishing to join virtually may do so by clicking here.

Flowers are gratefully declined. In memoriam donations can be made to the ALS Society of BC <https://www.alsbc.ca/donate/> or the charity of your choice.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
