Ted passed away peacefully at Royal Jubilee Hospital on March 19, 2021, at the age of 84. Predeceased by his wife, Florence; granddaughter, Sabrina; sister and brother-in-law, May and Charlie; brothers and sisters-in-law, Hing, Yee Shee, May, Jeff, Roger, Anna, and Diana. He will be lovingly remembered and missed by many including his children, Claudia (Robert), Gerald, Claude (Sharon), and Geraldine (Jackson); his grandsons, Chris, Jordan, Jacob, Landon and Tyler; his brothers, Tim (Ella) and David; sisters-in-law, Dorothy and Nina (Doug); and many cousins, nieces, nephews and family friends.

Ted worked for many years at Fairway Markets and then devoted all of his time to taking care of Florence after he retired. Many will remember his willingness to assist others, his kindness, hard-working ethics and his love for the SF 49ers. He brought a smile to many people's faces with his funny, but no-nonsense wit! The family would like to express their gratitude to the Palliative Care Team at RJH for their compassionate care.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, March 27, 2021 at 1:30 pm. However, due to Covid restrictions, guests can attend the service via Zoom by clicking on the zoom link below.
