

Terry Alan Salo

Terry Salo was a fisherman and dedicated father. He was also so proud of his kids and often heard on the sidelines at his kids sporting events. He was the oldest of 4 from the village of Kyoquot. He lived an active life swimming, playing tennis and golf. He will be remembered for his big smile and strong character. He will sincerely be missed by his kids Natasha and Raymond, his siblings Diane, Dale and Brian and extended family and friends. He passed away suddenly with his family by his side.
