Terry H. Quocksister

Terry H. Quocksister, who many of you knew as “The Q”, born in Comox BC on Aug 18th 1943 died peacefully on Aug 26th in Vic General Hospital in his home town of Victoria BC. Terry had taken residence in Bellevue, Washington since 1996 and leaves behind a great deal of friends and employees. Survived by children Tanis, Lisa, Justin and Tim; niece, Laura and nephew, Stephen; his grandchildren, Kashtin, Josh, Milan and Racquel. Terry was a keen collector of friends and classic cars, always knew how to laugh and make others laugh. A big thanks goes out to those at the VGH that made his last days as comfortable as can be. For all of you who made the efforts over the years to assist in Terry’s long battle with his health, we thank you. Terry is joining his son, Jason, father, Herman and mother, Hillive in the gates to Heaven. In lieu of flowers, please make any donations to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

Please join us for a true celebration of life at McCall Bros Floral Chapel, Johnson & Vancouver Streets, at 1:00 pm on Tuesday, Sept 1st. Reception to follow at Victoria Golf Club.
