in Edmonton where she met John Edward (Bud) Fox. In 1952, they married and moved to Rossland, BC where three of their four children were born. In 1959, they moved back to Edmonton where their fourth child was born. In 1963, they settled in Victoria, BC where they made their home. Terri was a long-time business owner. She co-founded Gala-Van Catering Ltd. in 1974 which later became Gala-Van Party Rentals Ltd. (Gala-Van Party Shop) in 1981, where she worked until her retirement in 2001. For over 25 years, Terri was a member of Beta Sigma Phi (Chi Master). She was also a member of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Parish. Terri loved to cook and will be fondly remembered for her special family Christmas Eves.
