

Thora Arline Duncan

Passed away on May 2, 2012. Thora was born in Victoria, the only child of Jessie and Wilfrid Harrison of pioneer families from Sidney and Saanichton areas. Thora was educated at Northward Elementary and Victoria High Schools. After graduation, she continued her education at Craigdarroch Castle Education Program and then worked in the commercial outlets in downtown Victoria. She finished her working years with McMartin Leather Goods. Thora married Len Duncan on September 26, 1940 and they were together until April 1942 when Len went overseas, returning to Victoria on January 21, 1946. After Len's return, they built their home in Oak Bay. Len and Thora had a very happy marriage until Len passed away on December 10, 1998.
