Timothy Kenneth Hoare

It is with great sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Timothy Kenneth Hoare.
Born in Halifax on August 12th, 1950, and passed September 29, 2025. Tim lived the majority of his life in Victoria, British Columbia.

Tim’s love and passion was tennis, and he competed regularly in local tournaments. He was a great competitor and a huge sports fan. Tim also had a passion for photography, movies, watching Jeopardy and had a vast general knowledge of everything.

Tim worked most of his life as a Glazier and enjoyed working with his friends who were his work family.
Predeceased by his mom, dad, sister and brothers. He is survived by his extended family, Carolyn Goff, Sue Phillips, Dwayne Reid, Ray Goff and Cynthia Goff.
Tim will be remembered for his thoughtfulness, generosity and his unique sense of humor.

We will miss you Tim. Love always, your many colleagues, family and friends.

Condolences may be offered to the family below.
