

William Vandermale

January 10, 1932 – August 6, 2012

It is with the greatest sadness we say goodbye to Willem Vandermale. Born January 10, 1932 in Rotterdam, Holland. Bill immigrated to Canada in 1953 with his beloved wife, Christina Wielhouwer. Dad is lovingly remembered by his children, Ganice (Kevin), Karen (Malcolm), Brian (Sara), Christina (Brian); Grandfather or Opa to Benjamin and Katherine, Andrea and Marcus, Olea, Anneliese, Emalee and Sydney, Kelly and Kirsten and Great-granddaughter, LilyMarie. Bill was a happy, kind, hardworking man who enjoyed singing in the Choral Society and church choir. He also enjoyed painting, woodworking and had many good times golfing at Uplands Golf Course. He was a long time volunteer for Oak Bay and his church. A special thanks to Dr. Ganz and all the staff in the Jubilee Renal Unit.

A Memorial service will be held at Knox Presbyterian Church on Saturday, August 11, at 12:00 Noon. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Kidney Foundation.

The angels have taken you and you will be forever missed. May you rest in peace
